January 5, 2010

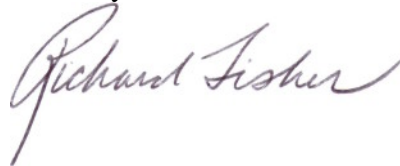

Dear Partners in Learning,

As you are aware, the free H1N1 vaccination clinic was cancelled on December 19, 2009 due to the inclement weather. Please find below important information regarding the date and time for the rescheduled H1N1 vaccination clinic.

- The Gloucester County Department of Health is sponsoring a free H1N1 vaccination clinic for children in grades K-12 that live in Swedesboro, Woolwich Township, East Greenwich, Logan Township and South Harrison.
- The free H1N1 vaccination clinic will be held on Friday, January 15, 2010 at the Kingsway Regional Middle School. Please enter the building through the main entrance.
- All children/students in grades K – 12 will be vaccinated from 4PM – 6PM. (The vaccine will also be available to preschool children/students over the age of 4.)

In closing, should you choose to participate in this vaccination clinic, please visit our school district website www.swedesboro-woolwich.com to obtain the necessary consent forms or please utilize the consent form previously sent home. The forms must be completed and given to the clinic volunteers on Friday, January 15, 2010. Thanks for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Richard Fisher
Superintendent
